

Newsweek®

June 11, 1984 / $1.75

NEWSMAKERS

Move over, Clara Peller. Make room for Ethel Sway, 76, the newly crowned "Little Old Lady From Pasadena." To celebrate the 20th anniversary of their surf-sound hit, Jan & Dean are making a video version of the song, starring Sway in the title role. "You always think that all the good things happen to someone else," says the soon-to-be terror of Colorado Boulevard, who won her ticket to stardom by beating out 100 other aspirants with what judges called her "zaniness, energy, wisdom and zest for life." Those qualities will come in handy. "She'll be doing some drag-racing, some singing, and I guess she'll have to learn to break-dance," says Dean Torrence, adding that the Beach Boys—who have helped keep the song popular by playing it in their concerts—will also appear in the video, due for release in July.

Limelight: Peller and Turkel plug 'unsuit,' 'Little Old Lady' Sway with Jan & Dean