Ol' Lady making comeback

Back in 1964, Jan Berry and Dean Torrance recorded a ditty called "The Little Old Lady From Pasadena". It became a hit. It became a bigger hit when the Beach Boys did it later. Then in 1966 Berry had an accident and it has only been recently that he has regained his strength. Next week Berry will be back in the studio doing "Little Old Lady" once more, this time on a video. And who will be starring with him? Why, the lady herself. 74 year old Lenore Woodward.
